(1) Evaluate the claim that ethical judgements could be founded on self-interest alone.

(2) “Morality requires a person to act for the good of others.” Evaluate this claim.

Ethical egoism could also referenced / discussed in the following questions:

(3) In what ways can an ethical approach, which concentrates on man’s natural characteristics, be a help or hindrance when dealing with moral problems?

(4) Critically evaluate the claim that we should never treat a person as a means to an end.